Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Awards Contract

CHARLESTON, S.C. — Concurrent Technologies Corp., Johnstown, Pa. is being awarded a $6,160,901 indefinite-delivery/indefinite-quantity, cost-plus-fixed-fee type contract for environmental testing, training, and education support services. Specific efforts include analytical, scientific, test and engineering expertise for evaluations, recommendations and developments regarding corrosion technology and testing, life-cycle environmental support, manufacturing technology support, training and education support, and information technology support. This contract contains one base year and three one-year option periods, which, if exercised, would bring the total cumulative value of the contract to $28,023,557. Work will be performed in Charleston, S.C. (10 percent); Pensacola, Fla. (10 percent); Tampa, Fla. (70 percent); and other areas (10 percent), and is expected to be completed by February 2007 (February 2010 with options). Contract funds will not expire at the end of the current fiscal year. This contract was competitively procured with unlimited proposals solicited and one offer received via the Commerce Business Daily's Federal Business Opportunities website and the SPAWAR Systems Center E-commerce website. The Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center, Charleston, S.C. is the contracting activity (N65236-06-D-5871).
